First, you will be driving to the city to Peterhof fountains and walk in a beautiful park. Admission is for extra charge. The opportunity to visit the park after dinner. On the way you will pass the city center of St. Petersburg .

DAY 2

A city of palaces and museums, broad avenues and winding canals, St. Petersburg's short history has endowed the city with a wealth of architectural and artistic treasures. Alongside world-famous attractions such as the Hermitage, St. Isaac's Cathedral and the Mariinsky Theatre, the city has scores of lesser known but equally fascinating sights that reveal both the pomp and extravagance of St. Petersburg's political and Imperial past, and also the mysterious, tragic genius that has touched so many of the city's great artists and writers.

Guide will take you to 3 hour city tour and after that you can visit city on your own. For an extra charge it is possible to visit Hermitage (needs to be booked in advance).

DAY 3

After breakfast there is half day for to see more St. Petersburg. Can be agreed if you wish to stay in city center and visit some more museums. Other option is to go and explore Tsarskoe Selo. The town of Pushkin, which surrounds the Tsarskoe Selo estates, is St. Petersburg's most charming suburb. Renamed in Soviet times to honour Russia's greatest poet, the town has numerous sights connected to Alexander Sergeevich, including a museum in the former Imperial Lycee, where he was schooled. Like Peterhof, Tsarskoe Selo is one of St. Petersburg's must-see attractions.

Price per person is 185 €. Price includes bus service for 3 days, tour guide service, accommodation in hostel (rooms for 4-10 persons), breakfast, city tour. For an extra charge there is visa, health insurance, entrance to museums, lunch, dinners.
